The Blended Benchmark consists of a 25% weighting of the S&P 500 Index, a 25% weighting of the NAREIT All Equity Index, a 25% weighting of the FTSE 3-Month Treasury Bill Index, and a 25% weighting of the FTSE 10 Yr Treasury Index.

The S&P 500 Index is a market value weighted index consisting of 500 stocks chosen for market size, liquidity, and industry group representation, with each stock's weight in the Index proportionate to its market value. The FTSE NAREIT All Equity Index is an unmanaged capitalization-weighted index that includes all tax-qualified REITs listed on the NY Stock Exchange, NASDAQ, and the American Stock Exchange. The FTSE 3-Month Treasury Bill Index is an unmanaged index composed of three month Treasury bills. The FTSE 10-Year Treasury Index is an unmanaged index composed of ten-year Treasury bonds and notes. The Bloomberg Barclays US Aggregate Bond Index is a broad-based flagship benchmark that measures the investment grade, US dollar-denominated, fixed-rate taxable bond market. The index includes Treasuries, government-related and corporate securities, MBS (agency fixed-rate and hybrid ARM pass-throughs), ABS and CMBS (agency and non-agency). The Bloomberg Barclays US Corporate Bond Index measures the investment grade, fixed-rate, taxable corporate bond market. It includes USD denominated securities publicly issued by US and non-US industrial, utility and financial issuers. The ICE BofAML US High Yield Index tracks the performance of US dollar denominated below investment grade rated corporate debt publically issued in the US domestic market.

Mutual fund investing involves risk, including possible loss of principal. In addition to the normal risks associated with investing, bonds and bond funds are subject to interest rate risk and will decline in value as interest rates rise. Investments in securities of MLPs involves risk that differ from investments in common stock including risks related to limited control and limited rights to vote on matters affecting the MLP. MLP common units and other equity securities can be affected by economic and other factors affecting the stock market in general, expectations of interest rates, investor sentiment towards MLPs or the energy sector, changes in a particular issuer's financial condition, or unfavorable or unanticipated poor performance of a particular issuer. In addition to the normal risks associated with investing, REIT investments are subject to changes in economic conditions, credit risk and interest rate fluctuations. There is no guarantee that the Fund will achieve its stated objective, which can be found in the full and summary prospectus, or that of the strategy.
